

ccc
ccc european ccc collective ccc housing
award

first edition 2024
regulations

1 call for submissions

Euskadiko Arkitektura Institutua/Instituto De Arquitectura De Euskadi (Basque Country Architecture Institute) and arc en rêve, with the sponsorship and collaboration of the Basque Government Ministry Of Housing, Territorial Planning And Architecture, issue their public call for submissions for the 1st edition of the European Collective Housing Award.

The award is intended to showcase collective housing in Europe, and in so doing to highlight its importance and particular characteristics in the providing of shape to European society. Collective housing is one of the foremost identifying features of the European city and one of the pillars of the European welfare state.

The award seeks to generate a critical debate between stakeholders and citizens on the subject of housing architecture, its quality and impact of city construction, in all its forms: public, private, new, renovated, etc. The award will recognise the result of the housing, implying all stakeholders having a part in the process, from those who contribute to the design to promoters of the building.

The award has an organising board and an advisory board.

The organising board is made up of the following people:

- Pablo García Astraín, Basque Government Minister of Housing
- Fabrizio Gallanti, Director of arc en rêve
- José Ángel Medina Murua, Director of the Basque Country Architecture Institute

The members of the advisory board are:

- Bernard Blanc, winner of the Mies van der Rohe Award and member of Bordeaux City Council
- Aurora Fernández Per, journalist and founder of a+t architecture publishers
- Carmen Imbernón, Secretary General of European Spain
- Vittorio Magnago Lampugnani, former Director of the German Architecture Museum in Frankfurt and former Chair for History and Urban Design at ETH Zurich

2 entries and categories

Candidates for the award will be housing developments with a completion date falling between January 1st 2018 and December 31st 2023, both inclusive. All buildings submitted must include at least 3 houses in a single-unit project.

The awards will be conferred in two categories:

- Best Collective Housing Development of New Construction.
- Best Collective Housing Development Resulting from Renovation.

- 3 jury The competition jury will be made up of five authors of recognised prestige in the architectural field. The names of the jury members will be announced on 29 February 2024. Both the organising board and the advisory board will participate in the award deliberation with voice but no vote. The technical secretariat of the award will write up the minutes of all jury meetings. The advisory board and the organising board of the European Collective Housing Award will act as the secretary of the jury, with no vote.
- 4 participants Eligible candidates for the 1st European Collective Housing Award are collective housing developments located in one of the 46 countries making up the Council of Europe: Albania, Andorra, Armenia, Austria, Azerbaijan, Belgium, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Georgia, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Republic of Moldova, Monaco, Montenegro, Netherlands, North Macedonia, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Romania, San Marino, Serbia, Slovak Republic, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, United Kingdom, Ukraine.
- Submissions can be made by:
- The Public Administrations responsible for promoting national, international, provincial or municipal developments
 - The development company, either individually or as a group
 - The architects of the development project, either individually or as a team
 - The construction companies participating in the development
 - Users of the development, either individually or collectively.
- 5 digital submission of proposals and documentation To make a submission, all of the required documents must be uploaded to the form found on the award website: www.europecollectivehousingaward.eu
- The form for uploading documentation will open on February 15th 2024. The deadline for submitting applications is May 7th 2024. The required documents are as follows:
- 1 A description of the development, in no more than 500 words, explaining its challenges and aims, as well as its contribution to the collective housing culture and to the numerous European ways of life.
 - 2 Technical specifications of the project, with the following information:
 - General details of the building work
 - Full name of the project
 - Location details (country, city, street, etc.)
 - Development completion date
 - Full name of the authors
 - Collaborators
 - Other technical personnel
 - Owner Developer or Institution
 - Construction company
 - Architectural Technician or Master Builder
 - Total Material Development Budget (Euros)
 - Cost/m²
 - Built surface
 - Author of the photographs
 - 3 A collection of up to ten photographs showcasing the finished project. These images should be in jpg or png format, with a minimum resolution of 2.000 pixels on the longer side, and each file should not exceed 3MB in size. This collection should comprehensively include interior and exterior shots, detailed sections, and any other perspectives that the contributors find vital for fully conveying the essence of the project.

4 A comprehensive set of the project's plans in PDF format. This should include essential plans such as site plans, floor plans, sections, detailed drawings, and any other types of drawings deemed necessary for a complete understanding of the project, like elevational views or specific construction details. While there is no limit on the number of PDF files or the size of each individual file, the total size of the submitted documentation should not exceed 20MB, ensuring detailed representation of the project within efficient file transfer limits.

The technical secretariat will send email confirmation to the candidates of having received their submission when their registration has been completed in full. Any doubts regarding the submission process and uploading of documents can be sent to the Technical Secretariat of the award at the following email address: info@europeancollectivehousingaward.eu

6

process,
selection criteria
and awards

Prior to the Jury meeting, the Technical Secretariat will draw up a document listing the development submissions received. Having made the corresponding deliberations, the Jury will draw up a document explaining the selection process, with a list of up to 5 finalist developments and 1 award-winner for each category. The Jury of the European Collective Housing Award can reserve the right not to decide a winner of the award.

The winning and finalist developments will feature in an exhibition and content issued for information purposes. Being selected as a finalist or winning development carries no economic reward other than the distinction of having been selected and the public exposure of said selection. In addition to the winning and finalist developments announced by the Jury, up to another 30 submissions will be selected to participate in the aforementioned exhibition and content issued for information purposes. The exhibition will display the documents selected both at the Basque Country Architecture Institute and at arc en rêve.

7

acceptance of the terms
and conditions

Submitting the works selected for the European Collective Housing Award first edition implies acceptance of these terms and conditions and authorisation to release information related to the selected works. The decision of the Jury will be final.

8

timeline

February 15th 2024
Opening of the submissions' form
—
February 29th 2024
Announcement of the Jury members
—
May 7th 2024
Deadline for candidates to submit queries and doubts regarding the call. Submissions will no longer be accepted from this date.
—
May 2024
Jury meeting
—
June 2024
Jury decision

9 legal stipulations and conflicts of interest

Developments produced by members of the Jury, of the European Collective Housing Award organisation, and by associated architects and first-degree relatives cannot be selected for this award.

All of the data provided through e-forms and/or by email will be handled with strict confidentiality in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of April 27th 2016 and of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5th, on the Protection of Personal Data and the Guarantee of Digital Rights.

The selected candidates will, in any case, ensure the truthful nature of the details provided. The European Collective Housing Award reserves the right to exclude from the registered services all candidates to have provided false data, without prejudice to any other legally existing procedures.

10 information and queries

Queries should be emailed to the Technical Secretariat of the award at the following email address: info@europeancollectivehousingaward.eu

